COURSE DESCRIPTION

A comparison and evaluation of different models and strategies of biblical discipleship and mentoring. Students will explore individual, small group, and congregational discipleship and mentoring in relation to the process of sanctification as presented in the Scriptures.

COURSE INTEGRATION

This course focuses on helping students integrate into their lives and ministries an incarnational and prayerful approach to making disciples where they journey with people as Jesus’ representatives and spokespeople. It will enable students to increasingly view ministry in a missional way while growing a passion for and developing skills in helping people follow Jesus within vibrant faith communities. We will look at personal and collaborative approaches to incarnational living and disciple-making. The class will also help students understand how we can effectively live as Christ’s ambassadors in the Canadian context with consideration given to the plurality of faiths and cultures in our cultural mosaic.

COURSE OUTCOMES

This course will help students:

- Analyze current trends in Canada that influence the ways in which they can effectively contextualize the Gospel and make disciples in the Canadian context
- Reinforce an incarnational lifestyle by engaging in and reflecting on missional activities regularly
- Formulate a theology of discipleship that focuses on helping people move toward spiritual maturity wherever they happen to be on their faith journey
- Appreciate the importance of making disciple-making a central part of church life, so that we can more effectively develop and multiply disciples (and churches)
- Grapple with various theological issues related to discipleship
- Compare various approaches to discipleship and assess which ones may be most appropriate for their context or a future context in another culture
- Evaluate their church’s disciple-making process and devise a plan for making it stronger
- Integrate the COACH Model for Christian Leaders into their repertoire for making disciples through one-on-one and group mentoring

ASSIGNMENTS

Pre-Course Assignments:

Course Textbook Reading Reflections (worth 25% of your final grade, submitted through Canvas)

After reading each of the course textbooks, respond to the following questions (a one-page response for each book or cluster of books):

Evangelism for the Rest of Us: Sharing Christ within Your Personality Style by Mike Bechtle

Where are you on the introversion-extroversion spectrum? What types of evangelistic approaches best suit your God-given personality? What are three things that you could do in your outreach to unsaved people in the next week in light of what you read?

Missional Renaissance: Changing the Scorecard for the Church by Reggie McNeal and Saturate: Being Disciples of Jesus in the Everyday Stuff of Life by Jeff Vanderstelt

As you think about what you read in Missional Renaissance and Saturate, how might some of these ideas apply to your church? What are some of the assumptions and values that might need to change (in both you and the church)? What might your church's disciple-making approach look like if the church leadership team implemented some of these ideas?

The COACH Model for Christian Leaders by Keith Webb

After reading The COACH Model for Christian Leaders, describe how this approach might inform your mentoring/coaching (be specific).

A New Day by Reginald Bibby and Hemorrhaging Faith by James Penner, et al.

What are some of the key ideas from these books that you believe your church needs to know and address? How might your church address them?

Missional Small Groups: Becoming a Community that Makes a Difference in the World by Scott Boren
What are five ways that you could help your small group become more missional in keeping with the ideas that Scott Boren presents in Missional Small Groups?

The maximum length of this assignment is five pages and is due by 9:00 am on May 6, 2019.

Post-Course Assignments:

1. Ministry Experience Reflections (30% of the final grade, submitted through Canvas)

In keeping with some of the major emphases of this course, I would ask that you engage in the following three specific areas of ministry throughout the semester:

Ministry Area #1 – Small Groups

For this assignment, you will participate in at least three small group meetings (with at least three people in attendance at each meeting) during the semester. For at least one of the meetings, you should be the one who leads/facilitates the discussion. These could be Bible studies, accountability group sessions, Alpha table group discussions, Freedom Session meetings, etc. At the end of the three sessions, take up to two pages to reflect on your experience in the small group. To what extent did the group carry out the four strategies for growing a small group (from the course module)? How does the group align or not align with the principles in the book, Missional Small Groups? What would you suggest to improve the functioning of this small group?

Ministry Area #2 – Coaching

Using the COACH Model described in The COACH Model for Christian Leaders textbook and discussed in class, meet with a non-family member for four one-hour coaching sessions. Your role as the coach in these meetings is to use the principles and practices you learned from the book and class discussion to help them take next steps in their personal growth. In two pages, describe your leadership coaching approach with this person. In addition, reflect on what worked well and what you could improve as you coach people in the future.

Ministry Area #3 – Engagement with non-Christians

For this part of the assignment, I am looking for three meaningful engagements per week with people who are not yet followers of Jesus. A meaningful engagement might be a conversation with a neighbour, an act of kindness toward a co-worker, an email or Facebook message, helping with an outreach ministry, etc. (of course, there are many other ways to engage with unsaved people). At least one of these engagements should be a Gospel interaction where you share your faith in some way (e.g. asking the person if you could pray for them, sharing your testimony, linking something they say with God or with something in the Bible, sending an email to an unsaved family member or friend where you express your faith in some way). I would ask that you engage with unsaved people (three times a week) for six weeks between May 13 – July 5 (this is an eight-week period, so you can choose six of the weeks when you will record your engagement with unbelievers). Record each engagement by week including a brief note as to why you thought it was meaningful. The total length of this third ministry area reflection is two pages.
Please submit your reflections on your small group experience, coaching and engagement with non-
Christians as one paper (maximum 6 pages). The paper is due July 5, 2019.

2. Discipleship Approach (worth 45% of your final grade, submitted through Canvas)

This assignment has three major parts:

Part 1: Theology of Discipleship (60% of assignment mark)

In this part, I would like you to develop a theology of discipleship that includes both evangelism and faith formation. Your theology should include a rigorous assessment of Jesus’ approach to disciples-making in the Gospels, other Scriptures, the course texts, class discussions, your own experience and at least five other sources. Please note that I expect an in-depth interaction with these sources. I want you to compare and contrast ideas from these sources and in the process come up with new ideas and/or applications of existing ideas. In addition, your theology of discipleship should be culturally and contextually appropriate for your current or anticipated ministry context (in either Canada or elsewhere). Your paper should answer questions like:

- What is a disciple of Jesus?
- How did Jesus develop his disciples?
- What is a biblical process for making growing disciples of Jesus who make other growing disciples of Jesus?

The maximum length of this part is seven pages.

Part 2: Your Discipleship Approach (10% of assignment mark)

In this part of the assignment, do a careful analysis of your actual approach to evangelism and faith formation. Where do your daily actions align with your theology of discipleship as stated in part one? Where do they fall short? What are three SMART (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, Time-framed) goals that you would like to implement over the next six months to strengthen your discipleship approach thus making it more consistent with your stated theology?

The maximum length of this part is two pages.

Part 3: Your Church’s Discipleship Approach (30% of assignment mark)

For part two, assess your church’s discipleship approach in light of your theology of discipleship from part one. What is your church doing well in the areas of evangelism and faith formation? Where could it improve?

To assist with this assessment, I would ask that you and at least five others from your church do the Church Discipleship Assessment (www.ministrylift.ca/church-discipleship-assessment). You will receive a special login code during the course module, which your group can use to access the assessment for free. Ask your group members to forward the summary email they receive after doing the assessment to you, so that you can analyze the results.
Once you have tabulated the results from the Church Discipleship Assessment, meet with those who did the assessment (and others, if you want) to discuss the results. You may want to focus on one or two of the 11 disciple-making elements (e.g. robust small groups) and work through the questions at the end of the corresponding chapter(s) in the Maximum Discipleship in the Church book (I can provide free e-copies of the book). Include a description of this assessment process and how it contributed to your assessment.

Based on your assessment and the input of others, what are five recommendations that you could present to the church leadership team about how the church could strengthen its discipleship approach?

As a final part to this assignment, create a one-page summary of these recommendations and your rationale for making them and either submit the summary to a member of your leadership team or meet with someone from the team (or the whole team) and discuss the recommendations. I would encourage you to communicate that you are making these recommendations as part of an assignment for this course, so they understand why you are suggesting them. Include a note in the assignment that you have communicated your recommendations as directed for this assignment. In addition, attach the one-page summary as an appendix for the assignment.

The maximum length for part three is four pages.

The total length of this assignment should not exceed 13 pages. The assignment is due July 5, 2019.

SEMINARY CALENDAR

Students are expected to be aware of the policies that govern course work at Briercrest Seminary, all of which are published in the current Seminary Calendar: https://www.briercrestseminary.ca/academics/calendar/.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend 100% of each modular for which they register. If this is impossible, arrangements must be made with the course professor. A maximum of 1 full day of class can be foregone. Students should request to withdraw from the course or move the course to an audit if additional time is missed.

Course Schedules

Classes begin at 9:00 a.m. on Monday morning and run a minimum of 30 hours through the course of the week. The schedule is determined by the course professor. Students should check the syllabus for specifics. When the syllabus does not state class times, students are responsible to check with the professor prior to making travel plans.

Assignment Submission

All assignments must be submitted no later than eight weeks after the last day of class as stated in the syllabus. The correct due dates will be clearly noted in the syllabus and each faculty member will state in their syllabus how assignments should be submitted. Assignments submitted within a week after the due date will be accepted with a 10 per cent penalty. For additional information refer to the late assignment policy or the extension policy in the academic calendar.

Return of Graded Assignments

Professors are expected to return graded assignments within six weeks of the due date. If they fail to do so, students may submit an inquiry to the Seminary. If an extension is granted, the professor is no longer obligated to meet this deadline.

Academic Honesty

Students are accountable to perform each task according to principles of academic honesty. Please refer to pages 24-25 in the academic calendar for more information.

Academic Accommodations

Any student with a disability, injury, or illness who may need academic accommodations should discuss them with the course instructor after contacting the Student Success Centre in person (located in the Library), by telephone (1-306-756-3230) or by email (studentsuccesscentre@briercrest.ca).
