

BRIERCREST

CO 819 Counselling Specialty: Motivational Interviewing Spring 2022

Professor: Margaret Clarke, PhD

Email: mclarke@briercrest.ca

Ph: 306-631-2594

Course Dates: May 24-25, 2022, plus online learning requirements May 26 - June 20, 2022

3 Credit Hours

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to introduce participants to Motivational Interviewing (MI), an evidence-based conversational approach for addressing ambivalence about change appropriate for a variety of helping roles. This course includes two days of classroom instruction with the remainder being online education.

COURSE INTEGRATION

This course will equip participants to reflect on the nature of ambivalence in the change process and better prepare them to skillfully address it, in an evidence-based manner, in a variety of ministry roles, such as counselling, leadership and pastoral roles.

COURSE TEXTS

Required Reading

Miller, William R., & Rollnick, Stephen. (2012). Motivational Interviewing: Helping People Change. 3rd ed., New York, NY: The Guilford Press.

Note: if you have read this text for CO 711, select an alternate text from one of these two options:

Naar, Sylvie & Suarez, Mariann. (2021). Motivational Interviewing with Adolescents and Young Adults, 2nd Edition. The Guilford Press.

Westra, H. (2015). Motivational Interviewing in the Treatment of Anxiety. The Guilford Press.

Moyers, T.B., Manuel, J.K., & Ernst, D. (2015). Motivational Interviewing Treatment Integrity Coding Manual 4.2.1 https://casaa.unm.edu/download/MITI4_2.pdf

Rosengren, D. (2017). Building Motivational Interviewing Skills: A Practitioner Workbook. Second Edition.

Students are expected to use APA formatting and refer to Briercrest Seminary's Format and Style Guides and Guide for Writing Research Papers, available as PDF documents here: <https://www.mybriercrest.ca/seminary/documents/>.

These texts are available in store and online at the Briercrest Bookstore: <http://briercrest.ca/bookstore>.

Students are responsible for course materials and communication on Canvas (<https://briercrest.instructure.com>; cf. <http://briercrest.ca/online/canvas>) and their myBriercrest.ca email account.

COURSE OUTCOMES

- Participants will understand the underlying philosophy and principles that make Motivational Interviewing effective and will begin developing skill in this approach.
- Participants will understand both MI spirit and technique and how the two come together to form this evidence-based approach.
- Participants will understand underlying theory of ambivalence, righting reflex, reactance, change talk and sustain talk.
- Participants will become comfortable with the micro communication skills utilized in MI.
- Participants will recognize the four processes of MI and become comfortable in moving through the processes to the point of evoking change talk.
- Participants will become familiar with MITI 4.2.1 coding and its value for ongoing MI learning.

COURSE OUTLINE AND CONTENT

1. Motivational Interviewing (MI) definition and underlying philosophy
 - a. Client –centered approach
 - b. Ambivalence
 - c. Righting Reflex and Reactance
2. Spirit
 - a. Partnership
 - b. Acceptance
 - c. Collaboration
 - d. Evocation
3. Core communication skills
 - a. Open-ended questions
 - b. Affirmations
 - c. Reflective Listening: more in-depth review
 - d. Summaries
 - e. Giving Information: more in-depth review
4. Four MI processes
 - a. Engaging
 - b. Focusing: more in-depth review
 - c. Evoking
 - d. Planning
5. MITI 4.2.1
 - a. Global scales
 - b. Behaviour counts

ASSIGNMENTS

Note: All assignments are to be formatted in APA and submitted via Canvas.

Pre-Course Assignments:

Read Motivational Interviewing: Helping People Change. 3rd ed. (Or alternate text, if read for CO 711). Write a 2-3 page paper outlining your interest in learning Motivational Interviewing and based on chapter 24 of the text what you foresee as key aspects of your learning journey.

Due Date: May 23, 2022

Value: 5%

Post-Course Assignments:

Read MITI 4.2.1 manual and view recorded MITI PowerPoint with audio lecture (available on Canvas). Submit a 3-4 page paper summarizing the key aspects of the MITI coding system and how it is used.

Due Date: May 30, 2022

Value: 5%

Audio-record a 10-min conversation (role play or real play with permission) with someone who is ambivalent about a topic that you can guide them in a specific direction (not a topic where you want to maintain neutrality). Transcribe the recording in the sentence stem template. Students are to then self-rate the session based on MITI behavior codes but not global codes (watch recorded PowerPoint and lecture prior to this). The following will be submitted to the instructor for coding and coaching feedback:

1. Audio-recording of conversation
2. An un-coded transcript (in Word format)
3. Student coded transcript (in Word format)
4. Behaviour counts and competency threshold calculations (in Word format)

Mark will be complete/incomplete based on completion and submission of all components.

Due date: June 8, 2022

Value: 10%

All online learning activities in Canvas must be completed before completing this assignment.

Code MITI behavior and globals for "The Confirmed Smoker" tape (available on canvas). Following completion of your coding, review the coded transcript (on canvas). In a 4-6 page self-reflection paper focus on these to aspects:

1. Growth in awareness of how to develop your MI skill, such as areas in your sessions where you did "good MI," area(s) identified as next steps for growth;
2. Learning from the coding exercise and insights for MITI coding. Reflection may include significant variances in your coding compared to the coded transcript (list transcript line number) and reflect on why you would either stay with your original coding or chose to switch to the transcript coding, questions or challenges you had in determining a code.

For this assignment the following will be submitted to the instructor:

1. Reflection paper
2. Copy of the Confirmed Smoker transcript with student's coding

Grade will be based on the quality of the learning through self-reflection and not on the match between coding submitted.

Due Date: June 22, 2022

Value: 15%

This assignment cannot be started until the above two post-course assignments have been fully completed.

Audio-record a 10-min conversation (role play or real play with permission) with someone who is ambivalent about a topic that you can guide them in a specific direction (not a topic where you want to maintain neutrality). Transcribe the recording in the format provided and self-rate the session based on MITI global and behavior codes. Audio recording and un-coded transcript are to be shared with a fellow student who will also MITI code your session; students will then exchange coding and meet to discuss differences. Write a 4-6 page self-reflection paper focused on:

1. Growth in awareness of how to develop your MI skill, such as areas in your sessions where you did "good MI," key growth since beginning learning MI and area(s) identified as next steps for growth;

2. Learning from reviewing your session with your partner and insights from MITI coding that will help you develop your MI skills. (Focus on your growing ability to have an MI conversation, not your skills in coding).

For this assignment the following will be submitted to the instructor:

1. 4-6 page reflection paper
2. Audio-recording of conversation
3. An un-coded transcript (in Word format)
4. Coded transcript of your session indicating your coding first, plus your partner's coding behind (in Word format)
5. Behaviour counts, global scores, and competency thresholds (in Word format)

Grade will be based on the quality of self-reflection, insights into your current level of MI skillfulness, ideas about how to sustain your MI strengths, and ideas about how to grow in one or two areas of MI conversation skills.

Due date: July 6, 2022

Value: 20%

This assignment cannot be started until the above 3 assignments are fully completed. Audio-record a 20-min conversation (role play or real play with permission) with someone who is ambivalent about a subject that you can guide in a specific direction (rather than a topic where you will be trying to maintain neutrality). Transcribe the recording in the sentence stem template and self-rate the session based on MITI behavior and global codes. The following will be submitted to the instructor for coding:

1. Audio-recording of conversation
2. An un-coded transcript (in Word format)
3. Student coded transcript (in Word format)
4. Behaviour counts, global scores, and competency thresholds (in Word format)

Following this the instructor will arrange a time for an individual feedback and coaching session. Mark will be based on all components being submitted, quality of the session and completion of coaching feedback with the instructor.

Due date: August 10, 2022

Value: 25%

Reading, exercises, and paper. Read all Building Motivational Interviewing Skills: A Practitioner Workbook. 2nd Ed. Complete 50% of the workbook exercises, selected on where you need to grow. Based on all of the course reading, exercises, and assignments, write an 8-10 page overview paper of MI, including:

1. MI spirit,
2. guiding style of MI and ethical considerations of guiding people in a specific direction in resolving their ambivalence,
3. OARS,
4. four processes,
5. MITI coding, and
6. applicability of MI to your current and future counselling and/or ministry role(s).

Ensure you use all texts, articles, and other references used in the course as sources for your paper.

Due Date: August 17, 2022

Value: 20%

SEMINARY CALENDAR

Students are expected to be aware of the policies that govern course work at Briercrest Seminary, all of which are published in the current Seminary Calendar:

<https://www.briercrestseminary.ca/academics/calendar/>.

Attendance Policy

In order to benefit fully from a seminary education, to be good stewards of time and finances, and to be considerate of their classmates and faculty members, students must be in class at every opportunity.

Modular Courses

Students are expected to attend 100 per cent of each modular for which they register. If this is impossible due to extenuating circumstances, arrangements must be made with the course professor before the first day of class. If extenuating circumstances prevent a student from attending class, a maximum of one (1) full day of class can be foregone. If additional time is missed, the student will fail the course unless they first request to withdraw from the course or move the course to an audit.

Online Courses

If extenuating circumstances prevent a student from attending scheduled meeting times, then up to 20% of meeting time can be foregone. Students missing scheduled meeting times should make every effort to inform the course professor prior to any time missed. If additional time is missed, the student will fail the course unless they first request to withdraw from the course or move the course to an audit.

Semester-Based Courses

All students missing more than two full weeks of a particular course from registration to the last day of classes will receive an automatic fail (0%). A student may appeal a course failure due to excessive absences. Successful appeals will be granted only in rare cases where all absences are clearly beyond the student's control. Appeals must be made through the Academic Appeal Process.

Course Schedules

Class will run Tuesday, May 24 and Wednesday, May 25 from 8:30 am until 5 pm both days. Online learning between May 26 and June 20, 2022 will be self-directed by the student. One or two video conference Q & A sessions will be scheduled by the professor to support students' learning.

Assignment Submission

All assignments must be submitted via Canvas. Due dates for each assignment are clearly noted in the syllabus, with the final one being no later than eight weeks after the last day of class as stated in the syllabus. Due to the unique nature of this course and sequential nature of the assignments, late assignments may only be submitted 2 days late with a 10 per cent penalty. Assignments not submitted within the two days of the due date will be given a zero grade. A zero grade on certain assignments may prevent a student from being able to proceed with later sequential assignments. For additional information refer to the late assignment policy or the extension policy in the academic calendar.

Return of Graded Assignments

Professors are expected to return graded assignments within six weeks of the due date. If they fail to do so, students may submit an inquiry to the Seminary. If an extension is granted, the professor is no longer obligated to meet this deadline.

Academic Honesty

Students are accountable to perform each task according to principles of academic honesty. Please refer to pages 24-25 in the academic calendar for more information.

Academic Accommodations

Any student with a disability, injury, or health condition who may need academic accommodations (permanent or temporary) should discuss them with the course instructor after contacting the Director of Student Success in person (L234 in the Library), by telephone (1-306-756-3230) or by email (egordon@briercrest.ca). Documentation from a qualified practitioner will be required (i.e., medical doctor, psychologist, etc.).
